
Overview of Solution

Application Performance Management (APM) is a key IT discipline because maintaining the performance and availability of applications is an important service of an IT department. Using AppTransaction Xpert, an IT department has the power to perform deep transaction performance analysis and prediction.

- Getting Started
 - Overview of AppTransaction Xpert
 - System Environment
- Release Notes
- License and Installation Support
- Using the Online Help

For more information, see:

- Overview of User Guide
 - Overview of Tutorials and Examples
-